WHEELING, AUGUST 4, 1890.

TAKE your ice water slowly, sparingly Look out for the old man with the lon sun, yesterday. It seemed all wool and forty thousands yards wide. SENATOR PLUMB is more or less off on the tariff question. May be he is over ripe and needs to be plucked from his Senatorial pare's. THE stone bridge is worrying some o the local politicians. It may worry them more before they get through with it It may even fall on them.

Mr. HENRY WATTERSON'S SUCCESS AS A poker player is ascribed to his great bluffing qualities. These qualities have been noticed in his brilliant newspaper.

Ir the Senate would get right down to it and say by its vote what it means to do with the tariff bill, the country much obliged and humble servant.

FINCE Lord Dunlo and his wife have made up, and since his wife will continue to earn the family living on the concert hall stage, what's the matter with Me Lud and his Lady doing a double song than any and all others of his tribe. There is no danger of rusting out under such circumstances.

SENATOR BLAIR doesn't seem to realiz the Senate cut off the knife will fall on his tongue with the others. Now Sensof odd spectacles. The goneness o Othello's occupation would be as noth ing in comparison.

THE active men of both parties in Wheeling begin the campaign in earnest. One side is as much aroused as the other

Under all the circumstances nothing would now suit the country so well as to transfer te Arlington what is left of the mortal part of the immortal Grant. If Mrs. Grant and her sons agree to the the way. New York has no rights in river" has discovered that Congressman terprise calls for the earnest and activ J. D. Taylor is not enough of a soldier's Sunday school superintendents, and infriend to justify his renomination. Well, volves a large expenditure on the part what does somebody want, anyhow? of the Parent Society and its auxiliaries. ingham is spoken of by tho who feel this way about it, and it is said that the Democrats are expected to endorse Mr. Bingham. The probability i that Mr. Bingham does not wish to go to Congress or undertake any other laborious duty after the long and arduous career he has had.

The Campaign in Pennsylvania. Maxwell Stevenson, an active Demo-eratic politician of Philadelphia, who has been his party's nominee for Conwith his former associates emong the wage-earners. He is a good talker and a politician of "pernicious activity." He will not be much quoted by the Mugwumps who are trying to make a Re- & publican diversion in Pattisons behalf. It docan't matter. Robert E. Pattison, in spite of Republican dissatisfaction with the method of nominating Delamater, has no chance to be elected Governor of Pennsylvania this year. He might as well try to catch elephants with a trout line.

Going for Wannmaker Some More. Wanamaker is catching it again. The law officer of the Postoffice Department having decided that Tolstoi's latest book is not a fit publication to pass through the mails, the American pirate publish er of the book goes through his files and finds a letter from Wanamaker's business house desiring to make arrangements for the sale of the book. Postmaster General Wannamaker explains, what everybody familiar with such things knows to be the fact, that matters of this kind go direct to the Assistant Attorney General for the Postoffice Department, and do not reach the Postmaster General except on appeal. He does not explain, what is doubt-less quite as true, that the head of the book department of his business house was the only man in the concern who knew anything about the corres 1 o adence with regard to Tolstoi's book nor is it to be supposed that the man in charge of that department reads every book before he buys it.

Tolstoi's works are read by the bes people in the world. The work which has been prohibited is not fit to read. Up to date the Wanamaker-wreckers have not done very well with their job.

From the Czar to the Solian, Latest advices indicate that the hegira of Russian Jews, forced by the Czar, will be to Palestine rather than to this country. There are aid funds available for this purpose and more could be raised. Daily investigand adjacent towns at 15 Thousands of Jews who could not be induced to go to Palestine if it were paved with gold have nevertheless enough sentimental interest in the long cherished dream to aid others of their race to settle True, it is fleeing from the Czar to th Sultan, but the Sultan is a little easier to manage than his imperial brother of Russia. Turkey has to pay some little regard to the opinions of mankind, and Russia has nothing of that sort to temper her iron policy.

A Good Deal of it Wind.

The rumored effort of agents of Eugsh capitalists to buy a batch of table ware glass houses in this country may or good deal of wind about this British capital agency business. Banking on the investment of English money is breweries and certain other American enterprises, shrewd men on the lookou to turn a penny have invaded all sorts they could make. They look into a manufacturing conern's affairs, get a price, and then see whether they can sell at a profit. For the most part they represent themselves, are speculators, not agents of any respon sible person or company.

It is estimated that there are over 8,000,000 children in the Sunday schools throughout the United States. Many of these are doubtless already supplied with bibles, but it is safe to say that there are several millions who do not possess the sacred book.

"A bible in every home" was the keynote of the fourth re-supply and now a still more extensive work demands attention—A bible for every child in the Sunday school who can read. This en-

A Remarkable Letter.

The following letter from Mr. W. A. Thomson, of Columbus, Wis., is peculiarly interesting: "My wife," says he, "has been treated for her head, stomach and nervous prostration by three doctors in New York, two in Chicago, one in Philadelphia, one in Cincinneti, and at the large institute in Buffalo for 16 mouths. They all falled. But one bottle of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine helped her wonderfully."
